Mount Saint Joseph Academy educates the whole person according to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. MSJ seeks to nourish the mind and fortify the spirit of each student in a community united in daily prayer, robust learning, and active service, equipping them with an education to enlighten society with the truth and love of God.

Dedicated to: Mr. Leonard Bartenstein,

On behalf of the school community, thank you so much for everything you've done and continue to do. Your humor, passion, and infectious enthusiasm never fail to motivate students in each and every one of your classes. You show up every day with a zealous attitude that can excite any group of students, even 1st period AP Lit. Whether it's stickers on our tests, countless meme references, or staying up late to correct 50+ pages of essays, there are so many reasons we appreciate you.

Sincerely,
Pearl Bellomo
Editor of Publications

Our team of eight seniors and one junior worked hard to make sure this historic and memory-filled year at the Mount was captured in the pages of this year's 2021 yearbook & spring supplement!

Between fundraising in the fall with hand-painted pumpkins & MSJ's first annual Corn Hole Tournament, and calling local businesses & selling homemade cookies at lunch throughout the winter, everyone went the extra mile to make sure this book was the best it could be. And all of this hard work was in addition to the time and effort put into photographing at events and designing every page that you are about to see.

So, on behalf of the yearbook staff, we hope you enjoy all the fond memories you will be reminded of in these pages that were made despite all of the challenges happening in the world. And thank you to the team for your hard work and dedication - you guys did an amazing job!

- Ms. Hogan, Yearbook Advisor

Letter from the Editor

Dear MSJ Community,

It's impossible to know who I'd be without MSJ, all the people and experiences that have shaped me these past four years, but I know I wouldn't be the same. For me, immersing myself in the high school experience was more than just looking good on college resumes (although that was nice too). It was about exposing myself to new things and discovering my likes and dislikes, which all led to something greater; self knowledge. It's nearly impossible to accept yourself without getting to know yourself, so try new things, stay present, and be true to what feels right. Immerse yourself in life and follow what resonates.

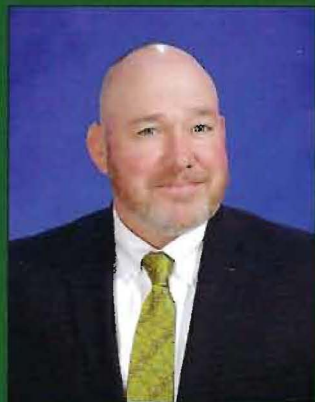

Three years ago, the yearbook committee introduced me to my passion for photography and creating something as a team. At first, I saw it merely as a hobby and a good way to show school spirit, but it manifested into my present aspirations for business and marketing. It goes to show that following your interests can uncover possible directions for your future. I'm grateful for everyone that helped me make the most of my high school experience, including my parents, friends, and faculty. A special shout out to Ms. Hogan, Mr. Zimmerman, Mr. Bartenstein, and Mr. Brusco for giving me so many academic opportunities to learn and grow.

Although this year has been different than most, MSJ had the unique opportunity to continue full time, in-person instruction and make memories regardless of surrounding circumstances. The 2020-2021 yearbook captures our unity, strength, and adaptability through hardship. I hope you, the reader, enjoy everything our team has put together. It's been an honor being this year's editor.

Senior Quote: "If school good, then why give depression and anxiety?"

In 10 Years, I See Myself... I debated on how I should answer this question. Material things came to mind like being rich and successful; working at a major law firm. However, instead of wealth, I see myself being feeling fulfilled by my accomplishments and grateful for those who helped me get to where I am, wherever that may be.

Senior Will: I leave the rising seniors with a few words of advice. Please don't procrastinate!!! I know that sometimes it feel like we have all the time in the world but we don't. Leaving things to the last minute will only make you anxious. With that said, prioritize your mental health and take care of yourself. The work you put in today will impact the results of tomorrow.

Clubs/Sports: Soccer: 2019

Thank Yous: My heart is full of gratitude for a number of people. I thank the Eatons for welcoming me and making sure I was cared for. Their five wonderful children made sure that there was never a dull moment in the house. I would also like to give special thanks to my teachers and counselor, all of whom nurtured my mind and made sure that I was fully equipped to go to college. Lastly, I quite literally couldn't have made it without my mom, dad and sister. Their love and motivation is the only reason why I am here today.
